Exchange Programme Fall

Semester 2025

CREATING MEANINGFUL EXPERIENCES

Academy Hotel & Facility Monday 31 March 2025

Introduction

Dear prospective exchange student

Thank you for considering Breda University of Applied Sciences - International Hotel Management as a possible exchange destination. Brace yourself for an entirely new and exciting experience at a top-rated programme in hotel management (according to a national authoritative student survey, 2023-2024).

The Academy of Hotel & Facility Management was founded in 2001 offering its students an entirely English taught programme leading to an internationally recognized BA (Bachelor of Arts) in Hotel Management.

What characterizes the Programme most is its innovative curriculum and alternative way of 'coaching' (not teaching) students to become self-responsible, result-oriented, result-oriented, communicative, and innovative young professionals.

It goes without saying that this can only be achieved in close co-operation with the real-life hotel industry. We kindly invite you to experience this new way of studying for one semester yourself!

1 Frequently Asked Questions

Are the courses above the only ones I can choose from?

Yes, they are. The exchange programme is fixed. If you are required to get 30 ECs after one semester of studying, you can simply copy the list above onto your learning agreement.

Can I combine with courses from the Tourism or Leisure or other BUas Programme?

Unfortunately, not. The schedules are complex, and a course might be taught at different moments every week. You will know your schedule in advance, but the same class can be taught at different moments per week. That makes it impossible to combine with other BUas programmes.

Do I have to follow the entire programme when I am selected?

No. You can pick and choose courses, depending on the requirements of your home university. However, you will only be allowed to take EHM2.IP1 -01 Integrated Project: Developing People & Organisations (6ECTS) if you also register for Economics, Business Law and Ethics, Organisational Behaviour and Research & Design

Why is that so?

Because the integrated programme is a so-called top up project. That means that it builds on the knowledge of the 4 other courses, which you take before that.

So not all courses are taught at the same time?

No. You will start with courses in Economics, Business Law and Ethics, Organisational Behaviour and Research & Design first. You have 10 weeks of classes and then take the exams. It is only after that the Integrated Programme starts. So instead of weekly classes, it is an intensive 4-week course/project on Revenue Management. Students participating in the Integrated Project apply and use the knowledge from the 4 theoretical courses.

What if I already have followed one of those 4 courses at my home university?

Compare the course descriptions below and send us a course description (and proof that you passed it) of a course at your home university before the start of the semester (verdellen.h@buas.nl). If the contents match, you can still register for the Integrated Project.

What if I decide not to take EHM2.IP1 Integrated Project. Does my programme then end in December?

Not really. Courses like Management Development Program & Event Management are spread over the entire semester. Also, if you failed an exam in the first round (November), you have one extra opportunity to take the exam again in week of 19-23 January. Please note that taking a re-sit is not uncommon in the Dutch educational system.

Why don't you offer any languages besides English in your programme?

Academic English is taught in the Fall Semester. There are also classes in French (B1), German (B1), and Spanish (A2), but these are spread over an entire academic year. Only language is taught and joining a course (halfway the year) would only get you 1.5 ECs. You can always check in your schedule when the classes are taught and ask the teacher if they allow to join a class on a voluntary basis. It will not be part of the official Transcript of Records at the end.

What if I only pass part of a course?

To pass a course (and receive the ECs), you need to obtain a minimum overall score of 5,5/10. If a course consists of more than one exam, then you will only get the credits if you score an overall minimum of 5.5. You cannot score lower than 4.5 on any sub courses. The system might differ per course but will explained in every course syllabus. You will not get half the credits for a course if you only take part in some exams.

I still have a question!

Then feel free to send us an email: hotelmanagement@buas.nl or verdellen.h@buas.nl

Learning Outcomes	 be able to understand the legal relations that exist in the specific legal areas of business administration discussed in this year's BLE programme. be able to formulate legal questions about the legal constraints that arise in the specific business administration issues discussed in this year's BLE programme. be able to apply these legal concepts in practice within the FM/HM industry. know, understand and apply knowledge of sustainable development to the HM/FM industry. know, understand and apply knowledge of sustainable development to developing a perspective on one's own future career and position within the HM/FM industry. know, understand and apply advanced insights regarding sustainable development within the context of one's own role and behaviour within wider society.

Brief Description	As the name suggests, this course encompasses two main components: (1) Business Law; and (2) Ethics (sustainable development). Even though these two components refer to two separate topics, which are also taught and tested separately, an important aspect of the course is to highlight the rela- tionship between legal and ethical considerations in business contexts. Deal- ing with these two components within one core course, and highlighting the links between them, allows us to focus on the full range of business and per- sonal decisions that range from "what you may and must do or not do" to "what you should account for, or at least consider" in decision making as a professional. In other words, the set-up of this course allows us to highlight the crucial relationship between legal and ethical aspects of business, with the Ethics component putting special emphasis on sustainable development as a crucial challenge to todays and tomorrow's industry and its profession- als. The BLE course in year 2 of the curriculum builds on what was discussed in year 1 (PP) but goes further into relating sustainable development to ac- tual business practices and the legal framework. The Business Law compo- nent elaborates on the subjects discussed in the first year and introduces some new subjects. EU law is discussed in more detail, as are special con- tracts, employment law and intellectual property rights. The indispensable relevance of law to sustainable development is also addressed. The Ethics component builds on the first year program and aims to help students to fur- ther develop their own perspective on sustainable development/ethics in relation to their future careers, roles and behaviors in the FM/HM industry.

Learning Outcomes	 To organize people To structure organisations To lead people and motivate them. To set up a proper strategic Human Resources Management cycle To deal with different national cultures To deal with different organisational cultures (cross culture)

Brief Description	Organisational Behaviour focuses on people: how to organise and struc- ture, how to lead and follow, how to set up a proper strategic Human Resources Management cycle, how to deal with different national and organisational cultures. As the OB course focuses on the behavioral as- pects of working with people within organisations, it provides (addi- tional) theoretical backing for the courses: Management Development Program, Business Law & Corporate Social Responsibility, and Operations Management. As the Economics course is based on specific psychologi- cal assumptions about human nature, OB offers supporting and competing theoretical views, building up students criti- cal thinking skills. OB offers specific theories and models of investigation; and the cultural sensitivity of investigating.

Learning Outcomes	Combine the principles of applied research and design thinking in the Stanford d.school Design Model in a way that you can critically and cre- atively develop solutions for management problems. > Deploy appropriate research and design methods in a way that you can defend the credibility of research outcomes and design solutions. > Explain different research assumptions in a way that you can interrelate research. philosophies, approaches, methodologies, strategies, data collection techniques and data analysis procedures. Explain an iterative design process in a way that you can distinguish. methods to empathize with users, define opportunities, create con- cepts, develop prototypes and test solutions Brief Description	students will learn both scientific and designedly ways of investigating. As an investigator, you need the ability to apply and reflect upon dif- ferent research philosophies, approaches and methods. As a designer, you need the ability to create, generate, converge and diverge. During the lectures about imagination and design, the Imagination day and the Engineering day, you will get familiar with generation techniques and decision and evaluation techniques. Moreover during lectures related to quantitative research methods you will get acquainted with issues such as research design, sampling and data analysis.

Semester	September – January
Teaching Hours	4x 4 hours (mandatory)
Mode Of Delivery	interactive training sessions
ECTS credits	2
Learning Outcomes	In this semester the focus of the Management Development Programme is on personal development, professional development and study approach. On one hand you will get trained in self- management that refers to intra-personal methods, skills and strategies. This will support you directing your own activities towards the achievement of your objectives. On the other hand you will get training in Leadership skills, Team Dynamics and Application skills. Next to this you will be offered individual coaching which is focused on being successful in your study and career choices.
Brief Description	Although the exchange programme is not similar to the regular Management Development Programme, the exchange students will participate in the training sessions together with the students who participate in the regular Management Development Programme. All training sessions are visible in the schedules. For hand in dates see the schedule below.
	There are different sessions offered during this course:
	• Lumina
	Team Dynamics 1
	Team Dynamics 2
	Conflict management
Literature*	Lumina
Assessment & Criteria	The testing is based on active participation during the training sessions. You will be issued a 'Pass' for the course, if you attend all sessions (as indicated above). If you miss out on any of the sessions, you need to take a resit. The resits will consist of assignments, which are to be found on natschool and will be published after the training.
	For the hand in dates of the assignments and resits see the schedule be-

Course Code	EHM2.EX-EM-01
Course Title	EVENT MANAGEMENT
Course Coordinator	Hanny Verdellen verdellen.h@buas.nl
Language of Instruction	English
Semester	September - January
Mode Of Delivery	Lectures, Tutor Meetings, organizing an event
ECTS credits	4
Learning Outcomes	After completing this theme, students:
	 can design a feasible event concept (including description of the event and the event theme, description of the goals of the event, timing of the event, global F&B concept (if applicable)) can apply event marketing to the approved event concept can format a preliminary event budget, including a complete overview of all expected costs and revenues can apply financial management including budget, break event calculation, cash flow and calculation of prices can write a feasible script which will be the foundation of the event can execute the event based upon the approved concept plan and approved script can operationalize the script during the event execution can evaluate the concept plan, financial plan, marketing strategy, script, and event execution can understand the process of generating profit
	The importance of the theme event management lies in the opportunity for students to show their entrepreneurial skills by organizing and executing an event. The content of the course focuses on applying the basics of event man- agement, with special emphasis on the crucial role of marketing and budgeting.
	Profit which results from events will be transferred to corporate social responsible charity causes. Within the context of a project team, students focus on understanding theories and models related to Event Management and how to apply them in a practical situation. In addition, students will apply their hospitality and communication related skills, that they practiced in year 1, in a real-life situation.
	During the course you will deliver:
	Individual Cross-Cultural Analysis Report
	 Individual reflection report on cultural differences Between the Dutch and your home culture.
	 Between the Thai and your home culture.
	• Group Report for the actual event, the preparation, concept and the evaluation report. This grade consists of:
	 Event Concept
	 Financial plan
	 Script
	 Event execution
	 Evaluation report

	 This is including the Individual grade for participation (attendance, input) and cooperation in your project group. Your tutor will judge: your input in the plans your performance during all meetings and the actual event Input from the peer evaluations when deciding on your grade. For the grading we use the Peer Evaluation form

3 Useful Information

A laptop is needed for optimal performance.

Dress code

Certain visits / guest lectures / presentations require correct and formal attire. We do not impose uniforms, but Business suit & tie (men) and two-piece suits (women) will be required at certain instances.

Sibelicious

The programme boasts its own training facility, called Sibelicious, in which students are given operational duties. The following areas are part of Sibelicious:

- Reception hall with Visitor Centre
- Service desk
- Executive meeting rooms/ Board room
- Restaurant
- Kitchen
- Coffee Corner
- Grand Café
- Taste Lab

Sibelicious enables first year students to gain experience in taking overall charge of a hospitality business under the guidance of a management team of second year students. This means that students are responsible for generating new business, making price quotations, organising meetings and events, preproduction, and retrospective costing and after sales. It goes without saying that the institute is ultimately responsible for monitoring the quality of the students' performance and for coaching the students who work in Sibelicious.

Student Portal online

You received a letter with information about your personal login credentials. From this moment onwards you can use these credentials to log in to the portal as well as the other systems. You can log in to your personal portal via https://edubuas.sharepoint.com/sites/studentportal

For some additional support, if needed, you are referred to the 2nd instruction video on your personal page. In addition, you will need to use your login details from now on to make payments in the webshop https://more.buas.nl/ECP (e.g., for participation in the wine field trip).

Through the Portal you can enter your e-mail account (add tile: BUas), Brightspace (add tile) and Osiris (add tile). Brightspace and Osiris are the two most important applications for students at Breda University of Applied Sciences.

Brightspace is the electronic learning environment of Buas. It is used for, for instance:

- Course information: course descriptions, assignment descriptions, etc.
- Hand-in assignments
- Information on examinations: exam schedule, exam regulation, exam room division etc.
- General information: year planning, curriculum information, regulations, etc.

Osiris is a student monitoring system in which your academic progress, such as your marks and ECTS, are monitored. If you have any problems logging in, please contact the ServiceDesk.

MyBUas App

'MyBUas'. This student app provides mobile access to information about your study schedule/ roster, marks, and BUas news. The app is compatible with Android (PlayStore) and iOS (AppStore).

Additional Costs

The principle of student exchange implies that students can study one semester at a partner university, while paying tuition fee at the home university. No additional costs will be charged, except for school related activities that are not included in the tuition fee.
